Della Leaves Out for Nestucca—Geo. W. Elder Arrives in from California Coast—W. L. Ladd Undergoing Repairs.

The steamship Geo. W. Elder docked at the Callender pier yesterday at 3 o'clock p. m. She had stiff winds all the way up the coast, but her officers say she is warming up to her work in great shape and making good time. She brought thirty-five people in from Port Kenyon, nearly all of whom were from the Tallant-Grant canneries there. Mr. Will Tallant accompanying the party. She laid her long enough to take on a big load of freight and went on her way to the metropolis at dark.

A bill of sale was filed at the custom house yesterday, whereby Mrs. Sarah Pickernell conveys to the Callender Navigation Company, for the consideration of $1,000, each, the steamers Shamrock and Mayflower. The former vessel will be duly conveyed by the Callender people to her prospective owner, Captain J. W. Reed, of Gray's Harbor, in due season, and she will be recorded at the "seat of customs" at Port Los Angeles.

The government dredge W. S. Ladd is undergoing some needed repairs to her boilers, both of them being involved. She will be out of commission for the rest of the month, and will then resume her work on the river shoals.

Work on the steamer Lurline is being rushed at Portland and as soon as her dynamos are installed and connected up she will come out on her run. It is hoped she will be on duty by the middle of the month.

Bar Pilot H. A. Matthews has sold and delivered his interests in the fine bar schooner Joseph Pulitzer, to Bar Pilot Renet Svensen, for the sum of $500, the deal being closed yesterday.

The steamer Alliance came down from Portland early yesterday morning and went to sea with lots of people and freight on board, before 8 o'clock.

The steamer Coaster was among the arrivals from the Bay City yesterday. She went on up the river for a load of lumber outward.

The motor schooner Della went to sea and Nestucca yesterday morning, with all the stuff she could carry, as usual.
